

PARTS OF Speech

PRACTICE NOUNS, VERBS & ADJECTIVES

Practice Parts of Speech

VERBS

NOUNS

ADJECTIVES

Name: _____

Finding Verbs in a Sentence

Directions: Circle the verb in the text message conversation below.

A verb shows action in a sentence.
Examples: I walk every day. I run. I walk. I am eating.
Look for the word that shows the action.
The dog chews on the bone. The word chews is the verb.

Hey! My dog is missing.

Can you help me look for him?

Yes! I am eating my dog.

I will run to your house when I find him.

Thank you! I am going to make signs for him.

We can hang them on the trees outside.

You should draw a picture of your dog on the sign.

Good idea! I am going to write my phone number on the sign too.

We will find your dog.

I will search until he is home.

Name: _____

Finding Nouns in a Sentence

Directions: Circle the noun in the text message conversation below.

A noun is the name of a person, place, or thing.
Examples: The dog is barking. The word dog is the noun.
I see a cat in the yard. The word cat is the noun.
I will go to the store to buy some milk. The word milk is the noun.

Do you want to go to the park?

I have been in my house all day.

Yes! I will bring my soccer ball and jump rope.

Should we invite the other boys on the street?

Sure! We can have more fun with extra players.

We can make a soccer team.

I am going to score the most goals. Haha!

No way! I'm going to win the game.

Let's go eat pizza after we leave the park.

Yum! I want a big slice of pepperoni.

I will also get a large soda.

Name: _____

Finding Adjectives in a Sentence

Directions: Circle the adjective in the text message conversation below.

An adjective is a word that describes a noun.
Examples: I saw a big cat. The word big is the adjective.
I am eating a juicy apple. The word juicy is the adjective.

We are going on an awesome vacation!

We will fly on a huge jet plane to Disney World.

That's the best vacation ever!

The park is amazing and so big.

My mom said that the vacation was really long and fun.

Marcy's Mayhem

An adjective is a word that describes a noun.
Examples: I saw a big cat.
I am eating a juicy apple.

3 Text Message Conversations

1-VERBS

1- NOUN

1-ADJECTIVES

Answer Key Included

Name: _____

Finding Nouns in a Sentence

Directions: Circle the noun in the text message conversation below.

A noun is the person, place or thing in the sentence.
Examples: The girl reads a book. The word girl is the noun.
I see a cat in the yard. The word cat is the noun.
We will go to the mall. The word mall is the noun.

Do you want to go to the park?

I have brought a soccer ball.

Yes! I will bring my soccer ball.

Should we invite it to the street?

Sure! We can have more fun with extra.

We can make a soccer field.

I am going to score the most goals. Ha.

No way! I'm going to win the game.

Let's go eat pizza after we leave the park.

Yum! I want a big slice of pepperoni.

I will also get a large soda.

Name: _____

Finding Verbs in a Sentence

Directions: Circle the verb in the text message conversation below.

A verb gives action in a sentence.
Examples: I will walk to school. The word walk is the verb.
The dog barked on the porch. The word barked is the verb.
I will give you a ride. The word give is the verb.
I will search for my dog. The word search is the verb.

Hey! My dog ran away!

Can you help me look for him?

Yes! I am eating my lunch.

I will run to your house when I finish.

Thank you! I am going to make signs.

We can hang them on the trees outside.

You should draw a picture of your dog on the sign.

Good idea! I am going to write my phone number on the sign too.

We will find your dog.

I will search until he is home.

Name: _____

Finding Adjectives in a Sentence

Directions: Circle the adjective in the text message conversation below.

An adjective describes a noun.
Examples: The red car is fast. The word red is the adjective.
The juicy apple is delicious. The word juicy is the adjective.

We are going on an awesome vacation!

We will fly on a huge jet plane to Disney World.

That's the best vacation ever!

The plane was so fast!

